

Gaining the Professional Edge

Retreat on the North Fork of Long Island

---

This program is designed to teach the principles of social intelligence. The ability to interact with others is crucial to a person's success. Latest research indicates that the ability for social intelligence is of great importance for success in many fields, particularly leadership.

---

The retreat is held at a bay-front location in Mattituck, NY | $125 for retreat
Retreat begins at 9a through 2p; snacks & lunch included

Please check the “News and Events” section of the website for a schedule of upcoming retreats.

To request a specific date or location for a Professional Edge workshop, please call (631) 298-7230.

In this program attendees will learn:

- Social communication skills
- The importance of body language
- The skill of effective listening
- Remembering names of people
- Table manners
- Appropriate professional dress
- Generational Awareness

The workshop format allows for questions and answers relevant to each individual.

Your facilitator Mary Eisenstein has conducted personal development programs with thousands of people around the world. She is also a mediator and personal coach.

To register and for information, call 631-298-7230 or visit www.melmarenterprises.com.